With a little help

ARTIST Roubie Nagi's art foundation has initiated some relief work by teaming up with a Mumbai-based crowdfunding platform, helmed and co-founded by actor Kunal Kapoor, along with Varun Sheth. Through the initiative, Nagi hopes to support the needy by ensuring that proper aid reaches various slum pockets in the country. Her plan of action entails door-to-door delivery of ration (rice, flour, pulses, tea, salt, sugar) as well as hygiene kits. Nagi shares, "When you see your family in need, you will come forward, help and support them. For me, people living in slums and bastis are my family. I will always stand by them in any situation. Family first."
